

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, With increasing regularity, South Dakota is becoming known nationwide as an outstanding place to establish or expand a business enterprise; and,

WHEREAS, While this entrepreneurial expansion means accelerated growth and development for all of South Dakota, it gives particular incentive to a valuable and significant segment of the state's population: the minority businessman; and,

WHEREAS, Presently in South Dakota, there are hundreds of minority business people from a variety of ethnic and cultural backgrounds. Each one is special, for they all provide our people, not only with a strengthened economy, but with diversified interests and a broadened perspective; and,

WHEREAS, Minority business people in South Dakota come from every facet of the working world. Some own construction companies, others farm or ranch, and still others are in the legal profession. But no matter what their field of expertise, the minority business person is an asset to our people and state, and a boon to our outstanding quality of life; and,

WHEREAS, Our challenge today is to continue to encourage the minority business woman or man to set up shop in South Dakota. With the support of all our people, South Dakota can maintain and enhance this vital source of greater economic strength and independence:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 2-8, 1983, as

MINORITY ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT WEEK

In South Dakota.

ATTEST:

Alice Kundert
ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
